March 25, 2016

Greetings!

Want to learn how to get free downloadable books, audiobooks, and more from your library? Bring your smartphone, tablet, or eReader with you, and join Digital Librarian, Marlene Jacobson, at the Digital Help Spot. Classes are scheduled for Wednesdays, March 2 - April 27, from 2:00-3:00 p.m. and Mondays, March 14 and 28, and April 11 and 25, from 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Here are FIVE FREE events I think you will enjoy:

The Community Services Department will sponsor five family friendly movie nights this Spring at the Murphy Park Amphitheater in Downtown Glendale. The movie series kicks off tonight, Friday March 25, with Minions (Rated PG). Pre-movie events kick off at 6:00 p.m. Bring a blanket and/or a lawn chair!

City Council Updates

This week, the Glendale City Council authorized the refinancing of several Municipal Property Corporation bonds which under current bond market conditions is estimated to result in $2.6 to $3 million savings over the term of the bonds. This is just another example of how your city is looking for every opportunity to save tax dollars and improve our long range fiscal condition.

Also, a special joint meeting of the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission and the

City Announcements

New Glendale Farmers Market Begins April 9 In Historic Downtown Glendale. Scheduled for every second and fourth Saturday for the months of April through July, the new Glendale Farmers Market promotes "Eat Fresh ~ Buy Local ~ Eat Seasonally." The goal is to bring fresh, local produce and handmade goods to Glendale and the West Valley.

The new Glendale Farmers Market will kick-off their season on Saturday, April 9, between 8 a.m. and noon. The market will be located in the parking lot of the First United Methodist Church, 7102 N. 58th Dr., at the southwest corner of 58th Drive and Palmaire.

The Glendale Farmers Market's mission is to create a community gathering place in historic Downtown Glendale, while supporting local farmers, small businesses, and community based organizations, many of which will also be invited to participate in various ways. In addition, the purpose of the market is to provide a marketplace for healthy, nutritious, and sustainable foods systems for residents throughout the Valley.

For market information contact:

City-Wide Events

Shred Event. The Glendale Police Department will host a Shred Event on Saturday, March 26, from 8-11 a.m. The event will take place at Target, located at 10404 N. 43rd Ave. Each household is limited to five (5) banker's boxes and due to demand, this service may conclude if trucks are full. I would like to thank the Library Advisory Board is scheduled for Saturday, March 26, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., at Glendale City Hall, Room B-3. This meeting will present final conceptual renderings, based on citizens' input, of both potential Western Area Branch Library sites.

This meeting is the result of over a year of discussion by the City Council and research from Glendale Staff, and follows a series of public meetings that recorded citizen input. If you are interested, I hope you will attend.
